In every land women are successfully applying their energy and intelligence to the solution of national problems—civic problems—business problems—home problems. Pictorial Review, the first great woman's magazine to recognize the broadening of women's interests, continues to lead the way in reporting new activities, new opportunities, and the great constructive good that women everywhere are accomplishing!

Mrs. W.K. Vanderbilt

Can a New York society girl do a hard day's work?

CAN a girl brought up in luxury sweep and scrub all day long without going to pieces? Would she stick to drudgery day after day without complaining? Would she stand discomfort, long hours, rough living and no amusements?

These are the questions Mrs. Vanderbilt—the New York society leader—asked herself when she went to France as head of the Red Cross Canteen Service. Read Mrs. Vanderbilt's answers to her own questions in her striking article called "The New Four Hundred" in Pictorial Review for July.

Kathleen Norris

Can you keep a servant?

IF not, is it because women, as employers of labor have failed? How is it that your husband can take your friend's youngest son into his office without lowering his social position while your friend's young daughter cannot come to work in your house on a basis of equality?

Read Kathleen Norris's startlingly original solution of this universal problem entitled "Help, Help, Who Wants Help?"

Rheta ChildeDorr

Are our thirteen million aliens to be Americans or Bolsheviks?

IMAGINE it! A salaried press agent of the Russian Bolsheviks carried on propaganda work at a meeting in a New York school amid yells of approval. Almost unbelievable, isn't it? But it actually happened. You will get the shock of your life when you read Rheta Childe Dorr's fact-story in Pictorial Review for July. It is called "America Must Be Americanized," and it will make you blush for our lack of national feeling.
